Nebraska Pork Producers Association Hosts Webinar August 15th at Noon on Trade and Regulations

Nebraska Pork Producers Association is hosting a one-hour online webinar on Tuesday, August 15th, beginning at noon. The webinar will focus on the changes and future of trade and regulations on a national scale under the Trump administration.

Registration for the webinar can be accessed by visiting www.nepork.org/producer-education. Participants are encouraged to register for the webinar, several days in advance and will receive an email with the direct link for the webinar. There is no fee to participate in the webinar.

National Pork Producers Council will discuss the many changes the Trump administration has made in areas such as trade agreements, 2018 Farm Bill, immigration and EPA regulations, with a specific focus on impact to the pork industry. Come listen how these topics could have an impact on your farm.

Nebraska Pork Producers Association will be hosting a webinar on the second Tuesday of every month from noon to one o'clock. The September 12th webinar will cover Farm-Level Crisis Planning with Cindy Cunningham of National Pork Board. For additional information on webinar topics and speakers go to www.nepork.org/producer-education.

The Nebraska Pork Producers Association is a grassroots, incorporated, nonprofit organization established in 1961. NPPA was developed to promote the pork industry through the enhancement of consumer demand, producer education and research. For more information, visit NPPA's website at www.NEpork.org.
